Here are my favorite quotes from Dexter Yager's Dynamic People Skills, which is an excellent book. "Here's the good news: you can create permanent change in your life. There is a way to get beyond mediocrity and gain self-respect. But you can't play games anymore – not with your bank account, your personal dignity, your marriage – or anything else that matters.

Have you ever walked away from a conversation full of doubts and insecurities? Do you feel as if you've lost a little ground after every staff meeting? Most people are either too passive or too aggressive in their business lives, and they end up never getting the support, recognition, or respect that they desire. The business leaders and trainers from Dale Carnegie Training® have discovered that applying appropriate assertiveness to all interactions is the most effective approach to creating a successful career. The 5 Essential People Skillsshow how to be a positively assertive, prosperous and inspired professional. Readers learn to: •Relate to the seven major personality types •Live up to their fullest potential while achieving personal success •Create a cutting-edge business environment that delivers innovation and results •Use Carnegie's powerhouse Five-Part template for articulate communications that grow business •Resolve any conflict or misunderstanding by applying a handful of proven principles Once readers know and can employ these powerful skills, they will be well on their way to a new level of professional and personal achievement.

If you are in some kind of job you must be wondering why it is necessary to do a business. I have also pondered over that for a long time. Business only is the solution to your dreams if you want to create an ever expanding source of wealth and provide you with the free time that you can live any way you want. Let us be blunt here. A job is a job. It requires you to be physically working. It might pay you handsomely or it might not but you need to be tied to that chair for a particular period. Typical problem with the job is "àÊÀ" when you stop working your income stops. Moreover your job eats your time. How many times you wanted a leave but instead were rushing to your office. In your job you are working for somebody. All your labour is utilized to produce gains for the company you work. What do you get out of it? Just a monthly wage. Why do this when you can build a fortune with same amount of work or less. Business is the gateway to freedom. Be it financial freedom or freedom of time. You might be working 9 to 5 everyday and managing your family well but what about future. The figures say that 80% of people in job can hardly manage their finances after retirement. Therefore if you want freedom and security you must start a business and make it successful. If you want to stop worrying about payments and pay raises, business is the answer. Starting your own business is a wise decision. Invest time and money to build up your home business until it is profitable enough for you to become a full-time, self-employed person. Please do not get me wrong. Quite a number of people are happy with their jobs as long as they can keep one. They have a routine they like. They get up and leave for job, happily exhaust their brain and energies for achieving the goals of company and return home tired. Then they race against time to manage unmanageable household chores because job has left no time for that. They sacrifice their likings to manage the house and the kids by squeezing time from here and there. After all you cannot increase hours in a day. They get frustrated but continue because they have been brought up with the idea of that kind of lifestyle. Their job is a continuous fuel that runs their machinery. It is never enough but they learn to manage. To trap them further there are pay raises, promotions and bonuses. For most of them their job/work is kind of a burden. They can hardly wait for a weekend. That is the reason people wait for holidays eagerly. They are not content but they learn to live with discontentment. Poor Souls! They are oblivious to the fact that there are more ways to financial independence than the one they follow. Then there are other kinds who are not blinded by the job glare. These are the people who keep looking beyond their present shackles. They hate it when somebody orders them. They hate to get up at the dictated time and rush to the office. They can see their labor rewarding somebody else. These are the people who keep thinking about the financial independence and look for opportunity to get it. But hold on. Not all of them would be able to achieve what they dream. Because most of them are too insecure to take any action towards realization of the goals they have been thinking. They have the dream, they have the desire but they lack the fire to fuel that desire. Quite a number of them have become so accustomed to the security of the job that they won't move in spite of the knowledge and opportunity. A lot of people keep procrastinating and for them the day never comes. There is another group who starts but quits at the first sign of failure. Only few are willing enough to work harder to make it. You can be among those few. Are You? Then get going.....

This extraordinary book will serve as a ready resource material for both the marriage counselor and the married couple.

Designed for health care professionals in multiple disciplines and clinical settings, this comprehensive, evidence-based wound care text provides basic and advanced information on wound healing and therapies and emphasizes clinical decision-making. The text integrates the latest scientific findings with principles of good wound care and provides a complete set of current, evidence-based practices. This edition features a new chapter on wound pain management and a chapter showing how to use negative pressure therapy on many types of hard-to-heal wounds. Technological advances covered include ultrasound for wound debridement, laser treatments, and a single-patient-use disposable device for delivering pulsed radio frequency.

Merchants of Deception - Written by a former government auditor and high level Amway insider who was the last one who wanted to discover massive consumer fraud. This book is gripping tale for anyone who has been or loves someone who has been recruited into a network marketing business. This well documented book has been utilized by government authorities in both India and the UK to take action against Amway's deceptive business scheme which knowingly has created losses for the majority of all induced to invest.

Updated in its 13th edition, Joseph Devito's The Interpersonal Communication Book provides a highly interactive presentation of the theory, research, and skills of interpersonal communication with integrated discussions of diversity, ethics, workplace issues, face-to-face and computer-mediated communication and a new focus on the concept of choice in communication. This thirteenth edition presents a comprehensive view of the theory and research in interpersonal communication and, at the same time, guides readers to improve a wide range of interpersonal skills. The text emphasizes how to choose among those skills and make effective communication choices in a variety of personal, social, and workplace relationships
